RETURN TO LIVE SERVICES

We are delighted to announce that we will be returning to in person services at St James with effect from Sunday 4th July. COVID restrictions will still apply, at least until 19th July, when we hope all remaining restrictions will finally be lifted. All services in July and August will be All Age as we are not in a position to resume children's groups until September. We will not be serving post-service refreshments until the remaining restrictions are lifted, so you are encouraged to bring your own water with you. Sadly, we are not able to run an open creche under current restrictions, so parents of babies and toddlers may want to bring a book or toy for their child. Face masks must be worn by adults in church. Until all remaining restrictions are lifted, numbers who can attend in person will be limited and places must therefore be booked in advance. We will block book places for those volunteering in each service and those not on internet at home, so they will not need to book in advance. That leaves 40 places available for anyone else who wishes to attend. Look out for details of how to book your place in next week's notice sheet. The service will also be livestreamed and available to watch online at home. Details for livestreaming will be published in next week's notice sheet.

FUNERAL OF MICHAELA INGRAM

Michaela's funeral will take place at St James at 12 noon on Tuesday 29th June. As COVID restrictions will still apply, numbers will be limited to 60. Attendance in person will therefore be by advance booking only. If you wish to attend the service in person, please book your place by contacting the church office at admin_stjameschurch@btinternet.com or on 020 8677 3947. The deadline for booking is midday on Monday 28th June. Face masks must be worn by those attending the service. The service will also be livestreamed so people can watch online at home. Details of how to access the livestream will be given in next week's notice sheet.
