CHRISTIANS AGAINST POVERTY (CAP)

Paula Thomas has recently finished training as a Debt Coach for CAP, which involves visiting clients who are in debt in their homes, gathering information about their situation and delivering advice on routes to help them become debt free. It is also an opportunity to speak to people about Jesus. For safeguarding reasons Paula needs to be accompanied on her visits by someone from one of the local churches, known as a 'befriender', who would also become a contact for the client if they needed someone to talk to. It doesn't require training and Paula will only be seeing one new client per month so the commitment isn't huge. If you have some time to spare, during the day, and are interested in finding out more please contact Paula (email: paulafca@aol.com)

RACIAL AWARENESS GROUP

Our PCC is currently enjoying some lively and fruitful discussions on the important subject of promoting racial awareness in our church. Many ideas for action are emerging and we would like to form a small working group to consider the ideas and devise a plan. If you are interested in joining the group please speak to Rocky Deans or either of the Church Wardens.

TURKEY 2025

Rob is leading a trip to Turkey from 16-23 September 2025 to visit the ancient sites of the seven churches of Revelation plus a few places associated with the ministry of Paul. Why not join us for this great adventure and have your ears and eyes opened to God's life-changing word. To see the e-brochure and booking form see here -

www.maranatha.co.uk/7Churches2025RevRob.pdf or ask Rob for a paper version.

Although bookings can be taken until June, it would be helpful for Rob to know as soon as possible if you are intending to come – this will help Rob in planning and preparing for the trip. Thank you.

PARISH SUPPORT FUND THANKS

The Bishop of Southwark has sent a letter to parishes to express his grateful thanks for the generous contribution to the Parish Support Fund (PSF) and commitment to supporting ministry across our diverse diocese. You can read the letter on the notice board in the Church Centre.

FURZEDOWN FUN DAY - HELP NEEDED

Saturday 14th June is Furzedown Funday and Furzedown Churches are hosting a Tea Tent with all profits heading to the Foodbank. We would love it if you could help us, there are a number of opportunities:

- Could you bake cakes, biscuits and cookies to be sold? These would need to be brought to MLBC on Thursday 12th or Friday 13th June.
- Could you volunteer for a couple of hours? Each of the Furzedown churches are taking a turn to serve and St James' shift is 12-2pm. If you can join your churches team please speak to Rob.
- Can you pray? We'll get the opportunity to serve thousands of people across the day, so please pray that we reflect Christ in all we do and for opportunities to share Jesus with our neighbours.
